ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This publication is a synthesis of the collaborative work by Janwani along with experts, students, academicians and citizens of the city. We began our work by brainstorming sessions with Dr. Kiran Kulkarni at Janwani office and under his guidance, we embarked-upon the arduous journey of deciphering the 2013-14 budget of Pune Municipal Corporation.

On behalf of Janwani, Mr. Naim Keruwala was appointed to lead the project and he has taken elaborate efforts to bring the project to its logical conclusion. Ms. Meenal Inamdar, a trained economist with prior experience of analyzing local and state budgets took charge as the lead analyst and Ms. Saylee Jog, graduate student at Fergusson College, Department of Economics and Mr. Sumesh Thakur, graduate student at Gokhale Institute of Politics & Economy joined the team to provide assistance in collection, compilation, tabulation and analysis of the budget data. Ms. Pooja Shah and Ar. Komal Potdar took charge of designing the cover-page and lay-out of the book. The team painstakingly worked for three months and produced this simplified version of Pune Municipal Corporation budget 2013-14,

We extend our gratitude for all the help from Dr. Deelip Jokhe (Former Director, Accounts and Treasuries, Government of Maharashtra), Dr. Amir Bazaz (Professor, Symbiosis School of Economics) and Ar. Shruti Vaishampayan (Urban Planner, Janwani) for supporting us at regular intervals during the course of the project.

Our special thanks to Dr. Julie Hudman and Ms. Prachi Salve of IndiaSpend (India's first data journalism initiative) for helping us in analysing the trends of PMC budget and draw inferences that will help the readers in better understanding of the PMC budget. Mrs. Ulka Kalaskar (Chief Accountant, Pune Municipal Corporation) was very supportive in our endeavour to simplify the budget and tried to help in the best of her capacity. We thank for her continued support.

We would not have been able to undertake this project and reach to completion without our Chairman, Dr. Vijay Kelkar's gracious guidance and support. We also express our sincere gratitude towards the Janwani Governing board for supporting this exercise and providing financial assistance to conceptualize and publish this book for the citizens of Pune.
